Abstract. The classical Dodgson identity can be interpreted as a quadratic identity of spanning forest polynomials, where the spanning forests used in each polynomial are defined by how three marked vertices are divided among the component trees. An analogous result with four marked vertices is proved.

Key words. Dodgson identity, Spanning forest polynomials.

AMS subject classifications. 05C31, 05C50.